

Juniors From Marina Area Hold Meeting

Lawndale Civic Center, 14701 Burin, Lawndale, is to be the scene of a roundtable for Juniors of Marina District California Federation of Women's Clubs, Monday evening.

Mrs. B. D. Reece, president, has announced that past Marina District officers will be honored guests for the evening. The guests will include Mmes. Ronald H. Smith, Pacific Palisades; William Kemp, El Segundo; Rome Minkston, Manhattan Beach; Paul Yates, Redondo Beach; Ben Blee, Playa del Rey; Robert Bagnoli, Santa Monica; Robert Thomson, Manhattan Beach and William Wilson, El Segundo.

Mrs. Wayne Dearden, Operation G.I. chairman, will receive 650 boxes filled with homemade Christmas goodies for servicemen stationed away from home during the holidays.

Mrs. Robert Thomson, philanthropy chairman, will announce that Marina Juniors have selected as their philanthropy project for the year, the All Nations Foundation. This organization consists of the Boys Club, Community House and Hollenbeck Centers.

These are located in areas where educational level is the lowest in the county, annual income is less than $1000, and housing among the worst. There is also a clinic providing almost every branch of medicine, surgery and dentistry for those not financially able to pay for treatment or care.

(Continued from Page 9) retaining its Florentine appointments throughout. The building is situated in beautifully maintained gardens lying along the bluff of Malaga Cove. Tea will be served in what is now the Social Hall which opens out onto a portico and terrace on the bluff's edge. The old world charm of the building lends itself admirably to effective decoration.

This tour is significant of "Christmas in Palos Verdes" where the community-spirited residence still practice the custom of carolling at Christmas-tide. They also celebrate together the arrival of Santa Claus at the Plaza on Christmas Eve. The Christmas pageant of Neighborhood Church, when living tableaux throughout the gardens depict the Christmas story against a background of carols, is a continuation of the pageants held when the Estates were first settled.

Further reflecting the spirit of the Community is the "Festival of Lights" when residents vie with each other in the exterior decorations of their homes.

Mrs. William Wallace is serving as chairman of the event. Her co-chairman is Mrs. Franklin Steinko. Publicity is being handled by Mmes. William Polkinghorn, Kenneth Warren and James Withers.
